

BARUCH COLLEGE
OFFICE OF COLLEGE ADVANCEMENT
Report to the General Faculty October 30, 2014

- Ended most recent fiscal year on June 30, 2014 with gifts and new pledges of $16.8 million dollars.
- Exceeded unrestricted fundraising goal (after raising the goal by $470,000 after the beginning of the fiscal year).
- Total assets of the Baruch College Fund now stand at $180 million, up from $158.7 million in June 2013.
- 17 Lex Society membership (donors of $1,000 or more in a given year) increased to 614, an all-time record.
- 27 new members of the Benchmark Society (recognizing people who have included the College in their estate plans)
- Second highest number of total donors to the College ever.
- Notable gifts in FY 14 include:
 - A $3 million gift from Sandra Kahn Wasserman '55 to name and endow the Jewish Studies Center
 - A $3 million gift from Prof. Paul Loomba to name and endow the Department of Management.
 - A $1 million gift from Robert Luciano '54 to endow a scholarship. This is the largest scholarship endowment gift from an individual donor in the College's history.
 - A $1 million commitment from Amy Hagedorn '58 renewing her support of the School of Public Affairs (SPA).
 - A $1 million gift from Lawrence Field '52 to support the 25th Street Plaza.
 - A multi-year commitment of $500,000 from Larry Zicklin '57 to support and bolster the CPA pass rate.
 - A renewed commitment of $300,000 from The Carroll and Milton Petrie Foundation in support of the Petrie Student Emergency Fund.
 - A $250,000 gift from Ernestine Wildstein '53.